

Debbie Hale

Debbie Hale is the Executive Director for the Transportation Agency for Monterey County, a regional transportation planning, funding and delivery agency representing the cities and County of Monterey. Ms. Hale has been with the Transportation Agency for Monterey County since 2001, and was appointed to lead the agency in 2006.

Ms. Hale has been in the field of transportation planning and financing since 1990, having previously worked for the Santa Cruz County Regional Transportation Commission and the San Joaquin County Council of Governments (in Stockton).

Prior to entering the transportation field, Ms. Hale worked four years with the California State Assembly as a consultant to the Revenue and Taxation Committee.

She received her Master's Degree in Urban and Regional Planning from Princeton University, and her Bachelor's Degree in Political Economy from the University of California at Berkeley.

She is an active bicyclist and resides with her husband Andy Ward in Capitola, where she serves on the local Arts and Cultural Commission.
