SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONS

Responses to these Supplemental Questions must be submitted with your application package for it to be considered complete. Invitations to participate further in the hiring process will be based on an evaluation of your application and the response to these questions. Applications received without a Supplemental Questions Response will not be considered.

Please number your responses and address each question separately. Include your name and the title of the position for which you are applying at the top of each page submitted.

1. Give an example of your experience, training or education that demonstrates your skill to plan, market and conduct outreach for a project or program and carry it out according to an established timeline and set of requirements. Include information about the type of project or program, your role, what your work plan and timeline, the extent of any public outreach, and how you coordinated your activities with interested parties.
 2. Give an example of your experience that demonstrates your ability to collaborate with and incorporate suggestions from stakeholders, partners, clients, or other groups to improve a project or product. Include information about strategies used to encourage individuals or groups to support your proposal and/or try something new.
